

Gospels Matthew

Keys Pieces of Matthew

1. Author—
 - a. He was known as _____ before became a follower of Jesus.
 - b. He was a _____.
His occupation is reflected in how he presents his information. Instead of telling Jesus' story _____, he groups facts _____.
2. Audience and purpose
 - a. Matthew wrote to show _____ Christians that Jesus is their promised _____.
 - b. He quotes the _____ more than _____ as many times as any other gospel writer.
 - c. Matthew is a _____ between the Old and New Testaments.
3. Theme—Jesus is the _____
4. Theme verse
Matthew 16:16—You are the _____, the Son of the living God.
(Note: Messiah & Christ both mean “_____.” Messiah is _____ & Christ is _____.)

Outline

1. Jesus' genealogy and _____ (1:1-2:23)
2. Jesus' _____ and temptation (3:1-4:11)
3. Jesus' _____ ministry (4:12-18:35)
4. Jesus' _____ ministry (19:1-20:34)
5. Jesus' final week in _____ (21:1-27:66)
6. The _____ (28:1-20)

The Gospel in Matthew

The word gospel is used two ways in the Bible

1. It is the _____ that tell the story of Jesus.
(When referring to a book Gospel is always _____.)
2. It is the _____ itself—the _____ that Jesus came to save sinners.
(When referring to the story of Jesus, gospel is always _____.)

There are two kinds of Gospels

1. Matthew, Mark, and Luke are _____ gospels. They all view Jesus from the same point of view—_____—and contain much of the same material.
2. John is not synoptic. It primarily views Jesus _____.

Matthew presents the gospel as both particular and universal.

1. It is particular in that it is for the _____.
2. It is universal in that it is for _____.

People in Matthew

1. Jesus' family
 - a. He was _____ so Matthew traces his roots back to _____.
 - b. He was a _____ so Matthew traced his roots back to _____. (OT prophets said that the _____ would be one of David's descendants.)
2. John the Baptist
 - a. He was Jesus' _____
 - b. His job was to _____ the way for Jesus.
3. _____
 - a. He was _____ when Jesus was born.
 - b. He tried to have Jesus _____.
4. _____
 - a. The Roman Empire was the _____ backdrop of Jesus' life.
 - b. _____ census brought Mary and Joseph to Bethlehem.
 - c. _____ oversaw Jesus' execution.
5. _____—A disciple is a _____ or _____.
6. Apostles
 - a. These were 12 men Jesus chose for _____.
 - b. Note: All apostles were disciples. However, not all disciples were apostles.